8 Ms. Monroe read a portion of a letter into the record from Ms. Linda Armstrong, who was responding to 9 comments made by Councilor Hill at the last meeting. Ms. Armstrong referenced a comment that the 10 Bank Street neighbors are resistant to change, and she disagreed with that statement. She expressed her 11 trust in the members of the Planning Board to make a fair and balanced decision. A comment from Ms.
12 Doreen Schweitzer was also read. Ms. Schweitzer applauded Ms. Hill for her years of public service, but 13 she disagreed that the Planning Board had been wasting time listening to the citizens. She stated that it 14 was important to listen to concerns of the citizens when making decisions.

15
